Monday — Morning Prayer

Preparation

O Lord, open our lips.

And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

A Song for the Poor in Spirit

- 1 I said: In the noontide of my days, I must depart; ♦
I am consigned to the gates of Sheol for the rest of my years.
- 2 I said, I shall not see the Lord in the land of the living; ♦
I shall look upon mortals no more among the inhabitants of the world.
- 3 My dwelling is plucked up and removed from me, like a shepherd's tent; ♦ like a weaver I have rolled up my life; he cuts me off from the loom;
from day to night you bring me to an end.
- 4 I cry for help until morning; like a lion he breaks all my bones; ♦
from day to night you bring me to an end.
- 5 Like a swallow or crane I clamor, I moan like a dove. ♦
My eyes are weary with looking upward.
Oh Lord, I am oppressed; be my security! (Isaiah 38:10-14)

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be forever. Amen.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Rejoice and be glad, for yours is the kingdom of God. (Matthew 5:3, 12)

Amidst the poverty of our spirit, O God, reveal to us a glimpse of your heavenly kingdom,
that we may rejoice in our work and be renewed in our confidence this day.

Rejoice and be glad, for yours is the kingdom of God. (Matthew 5:3, 12)

who has come to his people and set them free.
- 2 He has raised up for us a mighty Saviour, ♦
born of the house of his servant David.
- 3 Through his holy prophets God promised of old ♦
to save us from our enemies,
from the hands of all that hate us,
- 4 To show mercy to our ancestors, ♦
and to remember his holy covenant.
- 5 This was the oath God swore to our father Abraham: ♦
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,

- 6 Free to worship him without fear, ♦
holy and righteous in his sight
all the days of our life.
- 7 And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, ♦ for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,
- 8 To give his people knowledge of salvation ♦
by the forgiveness of all their sins.
- 9 In the tender compassion of our God ♦
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
- 10 To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, ♦
and to guide our feet into the way of peace. (Luke 1:68-79)

Monday — Evening Prayer

Preparation

O God, make speed to save us.

O Lord, make haste to help us.

A Song for the Poor in Spirit

- 1 O Lord, by these things people live, and in all these is the life of my spirit. ♦
O, restore me to health and make me live!
- 2 Surely it was for my welfare that I had great bitterness; ♦ but you have held back my life from the pit of destruction, for you have cast all my sins behind your back.
- 3 For Sheol cannot thank you, death cannot praise you; ♦ those who go down to the Pit cannot hope for your faithfulness.
- 4 The living, the living, they thank you, as I do this day; ♦ fathers make known to children your faithfulness.
- 5 The Lord will save me, ♦
and we will sing to stringed instruments
all the days of our lives,
at the house of the Lord. (Isaiah 38:16-20)

Glory to the Father and to the Son

A Prophecy for Those Who Mourn

- 1 Hear the word of the Lord, O nations, and declare it in the coastlands far away; ♦ say, 'He who scattered Israel will gather him, and will keep him as a shepherd a flock.'
- 2 For the Lord has ransomed Jacob, ♦ and has redeemed him from hands too strong for him.

and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the Lord, their life shall become like a watered garden, and they shall never languish again.

and the young men and the old shall be merry.
- 2 I will turn their mourning into joy, ♦
I will comfort them, and give them gladness for sorrow.

and my people shall be satisfied with my bounty, says the Lord. (Jeremiah 31:10-14)

A Song for the Meek

- 1 You came forth, O God, to save your people, to save your anointed. ♦
You crushed the head of the wicked house, laying it bare from foundation to roof.

I wait quietly for the day of calamity to come upon those who attack us.

A Song of Trust and Joy in the Midst of Mourning

- 1 Though the fig tree does not blossom, ♦ and no fruit is on the vines;
- 2 Though the produce of the olive fails, ♦ and the fields yield no food;
- 3 Though the flock is cut off from the fold, ♦
and there is no herd in the stalls.
- 4 Yet I will rejoice in the Lord, ♦
I will exult in the God of my salvation.
- 5 God, the Lord, is my strength; ♦ he makes my feet like the feet of a deer, and makes me tread upon the heights. (Habakkuk 3:17-19)

Glory to the Father and to the Son

for in your sight shall no one living be justified.

hide not your face from me
lest I be like those who go down to the Pit.
- 6 Let me hear of your loving-kindness in the morning, for in you I put my trust; ♦ show me the way I should walk in,
for I lift up my soul to you.
- 7 Teach me to do what pleases you, for you are my God; ♦ let your kindly spirit lead me on a level path.

for your righteousness' sake, bring me out of trouble. (Psalm 143:1, 2, 4, 6-8, 10, 11)

Preparation

O Lord, open our lips.

And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

A Song of God's Mercy

- 1 The Lord is full of compassion and mercy, ♦
slow to anger and of great kindness.
- 2 He will not always accuse us, ♦ neither will he keep his anger for ever.
- 3 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, ♦
nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.
- 4 For as the heavens are high above the earth, ♦
so great is his mercy upon those who fear him.
- 5 As far as the east is from the west, ♦
so far has he set our sins from us.
- 6 As a father has compassion on his children, ♦
so is the Lord merciful towards those who fear him.
- 7 For he knows of what we are made; ♦
he remembers that we are but dust.
- 8 Our days are but as grass; ♦
we flourish as a flower of the field;
- 9 For as soon as the wind goes over it, it is gone, ♦ and its place shall know it no more.
- 10 But the merciful goodness of the Lord is from of old and endures for ever on those who fear him, ♦ and his righteousness on children's children;
- 11 On those who keep his covenant ♦ and remember his commandments to do them. (Psalm 103:8-18)

born of the house of his servant David.

to save us from our enemies,
from the hands of all that hate us,
- 4 To show mercy to our ancestors, ♦
and to remember his holy covenant.

to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
- 6 Free to worship him without fear, ♦
holy and righteous in his sight
all the days of our life.
- 7 And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, ♦
for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,
- 8 To give his people knowledge of salvation ♦
by the forgiveness of all their sins.
- 9 In the tender compassion of our God ♦
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
- 10 To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, ♦
and to guide our feet into the way of peace. (Luke 1:68-79)

For children: spare them from fear and panic, and make them a joyful sign of your love and light, persistent reminders of hope beyond this time of pandemic.

Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

For those who take time to rest and play: rejuvenate their spirits, that they may in due course return to work with a refreshed mind and a fervor for you.

Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

For those who are using this time away to engage in creative activity: inspire their minds, empower their bodies, and enflame their hearts with the passion you have given them.

Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

For all who eagerly await their reunion with friends and family: give them patience as they wait, comfort in their longing and isolation, and the trust that those whom they love are kept securely in your embrace.

Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

The Collect

God of Our Vision,

In this time when we cannot see each other as we would like, give us the purity of heart to see you more clearly. Saturday — Evening Prayer

Preparation

O God, make speed to save us.

O Lord, make haste to help us.

A Song for the Pure in Heart

1 My heart exults in the Lord; my strength is exalted in my God. ♦

My mouth derides my enemies, because I rejoice in my victory.

2 ‘There is no Holy One like the Lord, ♦

no one besides you;
there is no Rock like our God.

3 Talk no more so very proudly, ♦

let not arrogance come from your mouth;

4 For the Lord is a God of knowledge, ♦ and by him actions are weighed.

5 The Lord kills and brings to life; , ♦

he brings down to Sheol and raises up.

6 The Lord makes poor and makes rich; ♦

he brings low, he also exalts.

7 He raises up the poor from the dust; ♦

he lifts the needy from the ash heap,

8 To make them sit with princes ♦ and inherit a seat of honor.

9 For the pillars of the earth are the Lord’s, ♦ and on them he has set the world.’ (1 Samuel 2:1-3,6-8)

Glory to the Father and to the Son

help us to amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be;
that we may do justly,
love mercy,
and walk humbly with you, our God.

For those who provide encouragement through comedy, entertainment, or the arts: give them joy in their work, that through your inspiration they might lift the spirits of all who suffer in mind or body during this time.

Lord, in your mercy.

The Collect

Merciful God,

You give us the peace that passes all understanding. In this time when need is great and relationships are sparse, empower us to be your hands and feet in the world, that we might work the peace for which the world thirsts through our acts of kindness, generosity, and love. Work your peace in our hearts, O God, that we might see its fruits borne out in our love of others.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
forever and ever.

Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

In our separation from one another, let us offer up to God in prayer those from whom we are distant at this time and with whom we cannot share God's peace in person.

Silence for Meditation

O God, receive these prayers for our friends, family, and colleagues. Keep them healthy and safe, enliven them with your joy, and grant them the peace that passes all understanding. Though they be far from us today, raise us up together in hope, that we might rejoice in that day of reunion and love for which we patiently wait.

Amen.

The Eucharistic Prayers

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Rejoice and be glad, for yours is the kingdom of God. (Matthew 5:9,12)

We remember that, when the hour came, Jesus took his place with his friends at the table. He said to them, 'I have eagerly desired to eat this meal with you before I suffer; for I tell you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.'

Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he said, 'Take this and divide it among yourselves; for I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.'

Then he took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying 'This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.'
(Luke 22:14-19)

Remembering, therefore, that Christ our Lord awaits us at his table, let us turn to God with our longing for renewal, our desire for communion, and our hopeful anticipation of love and friendship restored.

Silence for Meditation

Praise to you, Lord Jesus.

Dying you destroyed our death,

rising you restored our life:

Lord Jesus, come again in glory.

Friends, as we await the day when we will share in the body and blood of our Lord together once more, let us remember that we ourselves are Christ's Body in the world, so that as long as we live and move and have our being in him, there remains nothing that can separate us from the love of God.

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Let us pray to God who provides all that we need and who is the source of all good gifts.

Father of all,
we give you thanks and praise,
that when we were still far off
you met us in your Son and brought us home.
Dying and living, he declared your love,
gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory.
May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;
we who drink his cup bring life to others;
we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Conclusion

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Rejoice and be glad, for yours is the kingdom of God. (Matthew 5:9,12)

The Benediction

The Lord sustain us in our solitude.
The Lord speak to us in our silence.
The Lord preserve us in health, cleanse us in body, and purify us in spirit.
The Lord bless us on our journey and bring us home to each other once more.
Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Occasional Prayers

Prayer for Washing Hands

As you purify each of us to become members of your body in this world, so cleanse the hands of your servant to do your work today. May these hands become hands of healing in our time of sorrow and hands of peace in our time of distress.

Amen.

Prayer for Going Outside

You love all that you have made, O God, and you call it good.

Give me the purity of heart to affirm the goodness of your creation, the stillness to observe the world around me,
and the grace to lovingly tend to the earth.

Amen.

Prayer in Time of Loneliness

Any of the following passages may be read:

Genesis 21:8-21

Exodus 3:1-22

Ecclesiastes 3:1-9

Matthew 26:36-46

Silence for Meditation

Prayer

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

As Trinity, you are community in your very being, and so you did not make humans to be your image in isolation. And yet that is precisely what we must do in order to love our neighbours during this time of crisis and disease. As you work healing in the bodies of all who are infected, then, work healing in my heart as I ache and long for the company of those whom I love. Give me the trust to commend them into your loving arms and the confidence that I shall see them again in the land of the living. Until then, O God, grant me peace to desire you as my companion on this sojourn through solitude, and lift my spirits in the knowledge of your abiding presence.

Amen.

Prayer in Time of Sickness

Merciful God,

You are my creator. You knit me together in my mother's womb, and you have been my companion through every moment of my life. In this moment of sickness, breathe your healing Spirit upon me as Jesus breathed it on his disciples. Give me strength in body and fortitude of mind. Give me the will to get better and the patience to endure. And grant me rest in your enduring love and hope for recovery afterwards.

Amen.

Prayer in Time of Another's Sickness

Lamb of God,

you take away the sins of the world.

Have mercy on us.

Grant us peace.

Come, Holy Spirit, with your healing balm for [Name]. Grant [him/her] peace in [his/her] distress and strength to endure this trial of body and mind. Keep [him/her] in your loving embrace, and bring [him/her] to full health once more.

Amen.

Blessing for a Friend in Isolation

Loving God,

Bless [Name] in [his/her] time of solitude. Give [him/her] a sense of your presence in times of loneliness, hope in the face of fear or anxiety, and assurance of [his/her] value to those who love [him/her]. May [he/she] be at home wherever [he/she] is dwelling, for all the earth is yours. May [he/she] set [his/her] hopes on your coming glory. May the lamp of your word guide [his/her] feet in these unsure times. In light of my separation from [Name], I commend [him/her] into your tender mercy. Bless [him/her] and keep [him/her]; make your face to shine upon [him/her] and be gracious to [him/her]; look upon [him/her] with favor, and give [him/her] peace.

Amen.

horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.
- 2 The Lord is my strength and my might, ♦ and he has become my salvation;
- 3 This is my God, and I will praise him, ♦
my father's God, and I will exalt him.
- 4 The Lord is a warrior; ♦
the Lord is his name.
- 5 In your steadfast love you led the people whom you redeemed; ♦ you guided them by your strength to your holy abode.
- 6 You brought them in and planted them on the mountain of your own possession, ♦ the place, O Lord, that you made your abode,
- 7 The sanctuary, O Lord, that your hands have established. ♦
The Lord will reign forever and ever. (Exodus 15:1-3,13,17,18)

Prayer

Good and Gracious God,

You have brought us at last to this day of relief. For all you have done through countless doctors and nurses, priests and counselors, politicians and experts, and all who have worked to make this day possible, we heartily thank you. For the gifts of friendship and community renewed, we praise you. For the privilege of work and productivity, we exalt you. For the joy of life itself, we glorify you.

Merciful God,

We know that this day of celebration has not come without severe costs. For those who have died and those who mourn them, we ask for the gift of your peace and eternal rest. For those who remain sick, we ask for health and perseverance. For businesses that have closed, workers who have lost jobs, and all who have lost homes or financial wellbeing, we ask for your mercy and for the enduring compassion of all people. Help us now to build a world of trust, care, and support, one that better reflects your triune nature as a fellowship of love and sacrifice.

Holy God,

Your ways are mysterious to us. We thank you for the unique ways you have revealed yourself to us in this season in the wilderness, and we ask for your help in the task of rebuilding that lies ahead. Guide our words and actions, and keep our hearts aflame with your righteousness, that we might not simply return to who we were before this crisis, but that we might now grow in deeper love for you and one another. Bless us now as we go out into our lives, whatever they may yet become. Give us your peace. Give us your strength. Give us hope and a future. And grant us a vision of your kingdom coming to pass amongst us, on earth as it is in heaven.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
forever and ever.
Amen.

The Blessing

If the prayer is said in a group, it may be appropriate to hold hands or lay hands on one another's heads.

And now may the Lord bless you and keep you;
the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you;
the Lord look upon you with favor, and give you peace.
Amen.

The Dismissal

The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time on and forevermore.
Amen. Alleluia! Alleluia! (Psalm 121:8)

Praise the Lord!

Let all that has breath praise the Lord! (Psalm 150:6)

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
